The synodal path of the Catholic Church, also animated by the desire to continue the journey towards the full and visible unity of Christians, 'needs shared words to be accompanied by actions' (Final Greeting, 26 October 2024). May the Holy Spirit, gift of the Risen Lord, sustain and guide the whole Church on this journey. May the Holy Spirit, who is harmony, continue to rejuvenate the Church with the power of the Gospel, renew her and lead her to perfect union with her Bridegroom (cf. LG 4). Pope Francis
